

About WINMARK

Winmark, Danish for “Field of Wines” celebrates the remarkable revival of the historic Poole’s Rock Vineyard and restoration of the breathtaking 130-acre Hunter Valley property, under the watchful eye of Danish vigneron Karin Adcock. For half a century, the vineyard has grown exceptional fruit, with a proud history of producing highly acclaimed Chardonnay. In acknowledgement of this, Winmark Wines has devoted the entire estate to Chardonnay.

Recently named 2023 Hunter Valley Cellar Door of the Year and Shortlisted for Best New Winery by the acclaimed James Halliday Wine Companion 2024, Winmark is not just a premium Chardonnay producer, it’s a destination designed to connect guests with wine, architecture, art and nature. A wonderland of sculptures, perennial rose gardens, luxury accommodation and natural landmarks of historical significance. Winmark is a place of remarkable beauty and unexpected discovery.

Thirty-four guests can stay across four luxurious guesthouses showcasing their unique character and hold furnishings and artworks sourced from around the globe, and all make the most of the breathtaking mountain and vineyard views. Winmark is one of the most prized locations at which you can hold your next event, small wedding, corporate retreat, under the careful watch of our team of experts who will leave no stone unturned for your day.

Cellar Door, accommodation, art gallery, private event space, sculpture garden walk, gift shop and coffee cart, open 7 days a week.

